Scritto da Susie Morgenstern, illustrato da Sébastien Mourrain, per Edizioni Curcio.
Un albo di grande formato che racconta l'infanzia e le tappe verso il successo del famoso compositore. Mi è piaciuto fin dalla copertina, che riproduce la New York di inizio '900.

The creators of Jazz ABZ are back for an encore! With infectious rhythm and rhyme, musical master Wynton Marsalis opens kids' ears to the sounds around us. Features an audio read-along performed by the author! What's that sound? The back door squeeeaks open, sounding like a noisy mouse nearby ì eeee, eeeek, eeeek! Big trucks on the highway rrrrrumble, just as hunger makes a tummy grrrrumble. Ringing with exuberance and auditory delights, this second collaboration by world-renowned jazz musician and composer Wynton Marsalis and acclaimed illustrator Paul Rogers takes readers (and listeners) on a rollicking, clanging, clapping tour through the many sounds that fill a neighborhood.

Ten-year-old Ernest lives a flat, colorless life. Each day is the same: he comes home right after school, eats a healthy snack, and does his homework. Enter Victoria, the new girl in class. Victoria instantly falls in love with Ernest, and bulldozes her way into his life. Much to Ernest's surprise, he likes it. Bit by bit, color seeps into Ernest's humdrum existence--and he begins to realize that life can hold an endless variety of love, friendship, adventure, and change."Quirky characters, heightening suspense, and hilarious situations are deftly combined in this tender novel, which examines a few of the large and small ways people affect one another." --Booklist, starred review
