The autobiography "Through My Eyes" written by Ruby Bridges tells stories of struggles and destitution. As a child during the time of segregation, Bridges was forced to face the ridicule of white people. During the 1960's many African Americans including Ruby and her family faced difficulties that would unknowingly change history forever.

It was the first time that a black child was allowed to enter an all-white school. At the time, Ruby Bridges didn't know why there were barricades and police everywhere or why people lined up to yell horrible things. She was just a first grader who wanted to go to school like everyone else. But Ruby couldn't go to school like everyone else.
